Meet The Director - Carlene Seppala

Carlene is an accomplished choral conductor and vocal performer. She graduated from Augsburg University in Minneapolis, MN with a Bachelor of Music Education majoring in voice and minoring in piano and continued with Graduate Studies in Choral Conducting at the University of Minnesota. Over her career she has conducted various choirs, orchestras and ensembles which range from select auditioned youth choruses, mixed and women's ensembles, church choirs, and a University Women's Chorus. Her career has also included directing and producing large scale musical productions. Carlene has taught voice privately as well as at the University setting.

She is an accomplished vocalist and as such has been a member of several choirs in Minnesota and New Jersey. One of her highlights has been to perform in Carnegie Hall with the Masterworks Chorus of New Jersey. Carlene takes great joy in working with choirs, melding voices together to create moments of beauty through fine music.

Meet The Accompanist - Hea Suk Che

Hea Suk Che was born in Seoul, South Korea. She has her undergraduate and graduate degrees in church music with a major in pipe organ from Chongshin University in Seoul, Korea. She is an accomplished pianist and teacher. Heasuk and her husband, Paul, a minister, came to the United States in the mid-1990's.

Heasuk has served as a church organist at various locations throughout the United States while also serving as a minister's wife and raising four children. Heasuk has been with Trinity Presbyterian since 2014, first as their organist then, in 2019, was promoted to Music Director/Organist.

Heasuk enjoys playing the organ: "It is the way of my breathing and praying to glorify God." She is thrilled to be the accompanist for CCPC.

LYRICS:

What Sweeter Music

Lyrics by Robert Herrick (1591-1674)

What sweeter music can we bring
Than a carol, for to sing
The birth of this our heavenly King?
Awake the voice! Awake the string!

Dark and dull night, fly hence away,
And give the honor to this day,
That sees December turned to May.

Why does the chilling winter's morn
Smile, like a field beset with corn?
Or smell like a meadow newly-shorn,
Thus, on the sudden? Come and see
The cause, why things thus fragrant be:
'Tis He is born, whose quickening birth
Gives life and luster, public mirth,
To heaven, and the under-earth.

We see him come, and know him ours,
Who, with his sunshine and his showers,
Turns all the patient ground to flowers.
The darling of the world is come,
And fit it is, we find a room
To welcome him. The nobler part
Of all the house here, is the heart.

Which we will give him; and bequeath
This holly, and this ivy wreath,
To do him honour, who's our King,
And Lord of all this revelling.

What sweeter music can we bring,
Than a carol for to sing
The birth of this our heavenly King?
